WHAT? Dive into the Greek/Roman classical world of old. Learn amazing details of its history, mythology, culture, and language – all of which still have relevance to the modern age. Your magistra (Latin for teacher) is ROBIN STEVENSON, now in her 14th year of leading after-school groups on a fun romp through history. This session we'll focus on the following:

-  TROY STORY II: The story of Troy continues with the Journey of Aeneas
-  AUGUSTUS: The life & times of Rome's most important leader
-  LIFE IN IMPERIAL ROME: The cultural norms of Rome during the Empire
-  CAECILIUS ET FAMILIA: Continuing Latin tales of a Pompeiian family
-  AS ALWAYS: Competitions, Games, Blessings and Curses of the Gods, All the Latin You Know But Didn't Know You Know, Movies, and more.....

REGISTRATION? It's very simple. Just email Robin this info by Friday, 1-4-19:

* name of scholar * grade * best phone * best email * home address

Nota Bene: Each class is limited to 30 students. Participants need to choose a classically-related name to use in the Club (e.g. Hercules, Athena, etc.). New students should have a few options in mind, as their first choice of name might already be claimed by returning scholars. Try www.theoi.com or paleothea.com (especially for girls) for name ideas.
